

The Washington State Patrol Criminal Records Division (CRD) will be hosting a criminal records conference March 9 – 12, 2015. The conference will be held at the Great Wolf Lodge in Grand Mound, Washington. The CRD is comprised of the Identification and Criminal History Section, the ACCESS Section and the Collision Records Sections. This conference will offer a combination of training for local law enforcement, criminal justice agency contributors, users, and technical support staff, as well as Washington State agencies conducting criminal records background checks through our systems. Training topics include Standard Response Protocol, WSP ACCESS Section Overview, Assessing the Completeness and Accuracy of Criminal History, Sealing/Vacating/and Expunging Criminal History Records, Background Check Community of Practice, Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, FBI NCIC Investigative Interest Functionality, Developing your Personal Leadership Style, and more. A full training agenda and course listing are available here.

The conference registration fee is $190 and includes all training, three breakfasts, two lunches, and break services. If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Becky Miner, Conference Coordinator, at (360) 534-2111 or via email at becky.miner@wsp.wa.gov.

You may fill out the registration form here, or you may print the registration form and mail it to the Criminal Records Division.
